

Revel In The Disgust

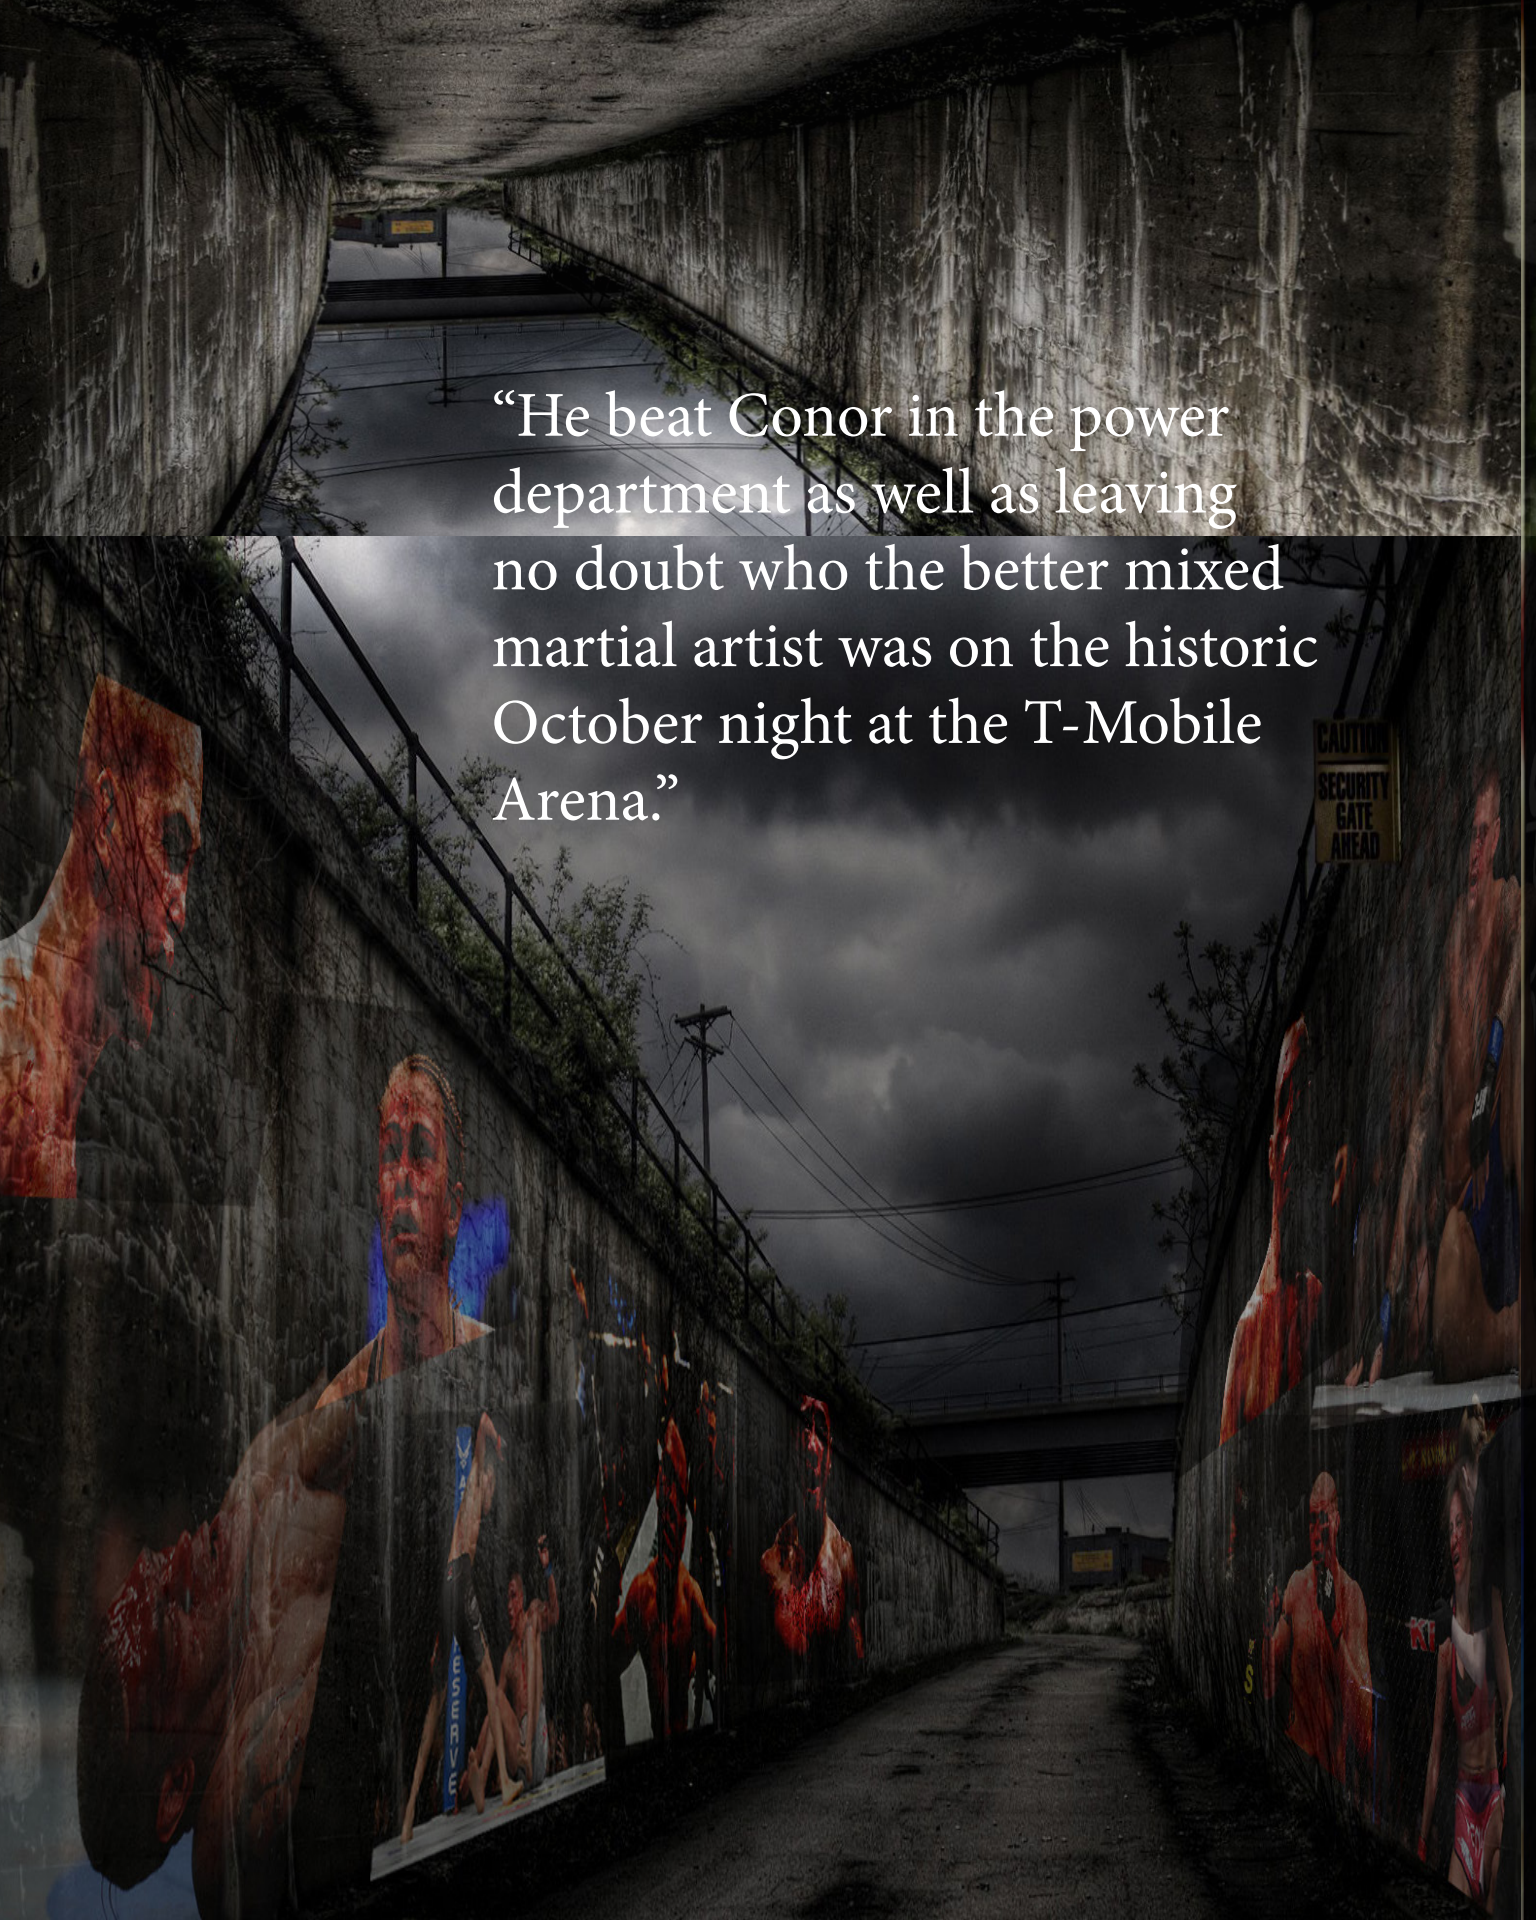

The sport of mixed martial arts is not for the faint of heart, but there is an art in the battle for fortune and glory.

“The loss resulted in two swelled up eyes, another broken nose and another concussion, which triggered the belief that he ought to get paid more for his efforts.”

“In what seemed like a flash, the Dagestani native went from being the silent emotionless champion fighting for legacy to the emotionally unstable wild bull engaging in another scrap.”

“He beat Conor in the power department as well as leaving no doubt who the better mixed martial artist was on the historic October night at the T-Mobile Arena.”

“The window of opportunity is now open for several 155-lb UFC fighters as a result starting with one Tony Ferguson. Could 2019 be Tony time?”

“The Arizona Senator, declared the activity “barbaric,” “not a sport” and, most infamously, “human cockfighting” and sent letters to 50 governors in an effort to ban the UFC.”
